

MONUMENT VALLEY

LABOR DAY WEEKEND

- Monument Valley lies in northern Arizona on the Navajo reservation. It is that area of majestic buttes and glorious desert scenery that you have marveled at in so many western movies. We will stay at the comfortable and historic Gouldings Lodge. They have a private paved runway with a tie down area. Check it out at www.gouldings.com and www.navajonationpark.org.
- Fly there on Saturday, September 5. We will meet for cocktails and then go to a cookout dinner. We are lucky in that the moon will be almost full when we arrive, so we can take the Full Moon Tour on Saturday evening. Seeing the formations by moonlight will be spectacular!
- Sunday, September 6 will be a full day private tour. It will cover Anasazi ruins, pictographs, as well as the monuments and a full lunch. In the evening, enjoy the complimentary Earth Spirit show which reveals the origins of Monument Valley. Fly home Monday.
- Cost is $345 per person double occupancy (that is $690 per couple) and $520 single. Includes everything but breakfast on Sunday and Monday, and dinner on Sunday. Contact Kris and Ernie for details and to sign up. 805-495-3717. (Limited rooms, call ASAP)
